

I'm A Team Player...Get me Out Of Here!

This is a highly competitive, fun and fast-moving team building event loosely based on the popular TV show I'm A Celebrity...Get Me Out Of Here!

Each team navigates their way through the "jungle" encountering a number of jungle-inspired team challenges. How will your team cope with Animal Encounters, Jungle Hawkeye, Jungle Survival and a host of other engaging team challenges?

Unlike the TV programme no one gets covered in stinky bugs, falls into dung piles or squirms in underground cess pits. And we won't be asking you to eat any nasty animal bits and pieces either! Instead we have some terrific jungle-inspired challenges that test ingenuity, teamwork and resolve.

A highlight for many is handling some wonderful critters including a giant salamander (Hercules), scorpions, hairy spiders, and snakes. And, as for the meerkats, only one word will do - adorable!

But it's not just animals. You'll be hunting for game, building group shelters, signalling for rescue, setting traps, whittling useful camp gizmos, foraging for materials and lots more. Experience your very own "jungle journey"!

I'm a Team Player...Get me out of Here! takes place in a forest near you, or can even be arranged in the grounds of your meeting/conference venue given the odd acre or two. Please contact us for more details of this new and exciting team event. Makes the perfect team awayday!
